

CERTIFICATE IN AGRO CLINICAL SERVICES BASED ENTREPRENEURSHIP

Subject Code: CSP-122

Scope of the Course:

Agro-clinical based services provide information to farmers about the new research based technology and to give information about the kind of Agricultural based business will start for their additional income. Agro-clinical or extension Services is an optional public program in which rural/urban youth provides services to farmers on payment basis.

You may choose new business opportunities/ self-employment or entrepreneurship as career options by getting trained to do business for livelihood while doing this Certificate course. The ultimate objective of the Certificate course is to create new enterprises, modernize the existing units for enhanced productivity, improve professional capability of extension functionaries, capacity building of existing MSMEs, and promote entrepreneurial culture for youth of nation. By doing this certificate course, you will gain knowledge of entrepreneurship activities such as company formation, promote skill development, develop professional competence of extension functionaries, reinforce linkage amongst farmers, scientists, NGO workers those who work in agriculture extension services and make bond between farmers to research institute, extension officers, selection and preparation of project profile DPR/PPR, marketing, service/product pricing, infrastructure available and, financial viability and other useful information

The Candidate you may setting up new MSME/ Startup for manufacturing/ processing of following goods/ items/products.

- Soil health management services
- Crop management practices services
- Plant Protection services
- Information & communication Technologies (ICTs) application Services
- Insurance, Govt. scheme and other extension services
- Agro input center services
- Contract farming services
- Tree transplanting services
- Agriculture production services
- Organic farming services
- Rooftop farming services and other various Agro Clinical Service
- Other Agriculture Enterprises based services (Protected cultivation practices, Post harvest handling and value addition, Vermicomposting, Apiculture, Mushroom cultivation)
- Other Allied Entrepreneurship: Use of ICT IN Agri Extension services, Agro Input center Soil testing and other allied MSME/ Startup entrepreneurship.

